IS SUSPECTED

"Philippine Authorities Think They Have Peter, the Painter"

WHO IS A NOTED ANARCHIST

British Police Have Long Been Searching for Peter for His Alleged Connection with "Battle of Sydney" in London.

Manila, June 5.—The Philippine authorities are holding a stowaway who was found on the British steamer Procellaria, which arrived there to-day. The man embarked on the vessel at Singapore, and it is suspected that he is "Peter, the Painter," the Russian anarchist for whom the British police have been searching in connection with the murder of three policemen in Houndsditch, of which encounter the "battle of Sydney" was the sequel. The police thought for a time that Peter was one of the two outlaws who were killed in the fighting at Sydney, but later the man was reported to have been seen at various places in Europe.

HONORED IN WEST

Howard L. Hindly Becomes Secretary to Washington State Industrial Insurance Commission.

Spokane, Wash., June 5.—Howard L. Hindly, who has just been appointed secretary of the State Industrial Commission of Washington, to administer the workmen's compensation act, effective June 8, is a native of the province of Ontario, born at St. Thomas in 1870. His brother, William J. Hindly, formerly a minister of the Congregational church, is mayor of Spokane under the new commission form of government.

Mr. Hindly came to Spokane 14 months ago as special and political writer for the Spokesman-Review, from Rutland, Vt., where he was managing editor of The Herald. He also was associated with other papers in the state of Vermont, prior to which he was for 11 years in the railway service as train dispatcher. His wife, who was formerly Mary E. Caldwell, is a native of Vermont, born in St. Albans. They have three children. His newspaper work in Spokane and at Olympia during the 1911 session of the legislature placed him in close touch with the state administration and he won the appointment as secretary of the commission without opposition, being recommended by Governor Hay and scores of prominent men throughout the state.

WOODMEN'S FIELD DAY.

St. Albans Plans to Welcome Order on Fourth of July.

St. Albans, June 5.—This city is already making preparations for the annual meeting of the State Log Rolling association, which will be held here July 4. It is expected that at least 500 guests will be here, and nothing will be left undone to make their visit a pleasant one.

The program will begin at ten in the morning when the election of officers will be held, followed by the usual routine business. In the afternoon, there will be a parade of the Woodmen camps at 1:30 o'clock, the line forming at the head of Kingman street for a march about town, ending at Houghton park, where the exercises and field sports will be held. At two o'clock, there will be an address of welcome by Mayor Greene, with a response by the state consul, H. H. Towle of Franklin. The Hon. Edward F. Burns of Newark, N. J., the grand lecturer of the Woodmen, who has a reputation as an orator, will deliver an address at 2:30 o'clock.

The competitive drill for the prize cup will follow, after which there will be a baseball game between the Barre and St. Albans Independents, followed by a good program of athletic events. The evening's program will include a grand ball at the city hall, and a band concert on the park.

200 WITNESSES
HAVE BEEN SUMMONED

To Testify in the Investigation of the So-Called Lumber Trust Case Now Started in Chicago.

Chicago, June 5.—With the official launching of the lumber trust case, which was due to-day when the grand jury will be impaneled to inquire into the operations of the alleged illegal combination, it became known that more than two hundred lumbermen and manufacturers have been subpoenaed to give their testimony. Fifty Minnesota lumbermen and paper dealers have been served with summons to appear before the investigating body this month.

Mother of Four at Once.

Calgary, Alberta, June 5.—Mrs. K. Kowalsky, 21 years old, yesterday gave birth to four children, all of whom are alive and well. She had previously given birth to triplets and twins.

Arrivals at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were registered as follows: J. Kaynes, Boston; H. B. Dora, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Walker, Lisbon, N. H.; J. F. Park, Monroeton, Pa.; W. Kierman, Roylton; S. Schreiner, Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sills, Boston; F. H. Mann, Woodsville, N. H.; D. H. Parlan, Boston; F. O. Tigelow, New York City.

DIED ON THE STREET.

William Davis of Woodstock Had Had Liver Trouble.

Woodstock, June 5.—William Davis, a life long resident of this place, dropped dead on the street about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. An affection of the liver is believed to have been the cause.

Mr. Davis, who would have been 68 years of age June 15, arose between 5 and 6, and after a light breakfast went out for a morning walk as has been his custom for years. He called at the hotel to buy some cigars and stopped at the garage for a chat with the men. He then started for home and when about 10 rods from his door dropped to the walk dead.

William Davis lived here all his life. He always enjoyed good health till a few days ago when he consulted a physician for a slight indisposition. His heart was found to be in good condition, but there was a slight derangement of the liver. This is supposed to have become worse and to have resulted in his death.

He leaves a wife and a son, Harry E. Davis of this place, also two sisters, Mrs. Elmina Howes, of Amesbury, Mass., and Mrs. Harriet Partlow of Lansing, Mich. He also leaves two grandsons.

JOY RIDE ENDED
IN SAD RESULTS

One Girl Killed and Another's Back Was Broken When Automobile Ran Against a Pole.

Worcester, Mass., June 5.—Miss Catherine Ryan of 277 Pleasant street, this city, was instantly killed and her sister, Margaret Ryan, was fatally injured, when a large touring car, driven by O. F. Quarn, crashed into a telephone pole on Quinsigamond avenue in Shrewsbury at an early hour yesterday morning. Quarn, together with Mrs. W. L. Rouseau, Frank Winchester and C. J. Brown, were badly cut and bruised, but were able to go to their homes.

The accident happened after a night's frolic at the Froislin club on Lake Quinsigamond. The party had gone to the club at the invitation of Winchester, who is steward of the resort, and at 3 o'clock yesterday morning started home over the Shore drive.

On Quinsigamond avenue Quarn lost control of the car, which ran into the ditch and shot into a telephone pole. The pole was snapped off near the ground and the upper part suspended by the wires, strutting Catherine Ryan in the head, crushing her skull and killing her instantly. Margaret Ryan was thrown from her seat and landed against a post with such force that her back was broken. The remaining members of the party were thrown from the car and suffered numerous cuts and bruises. The police of Worcester were summoned and ordered the removal of the dead and injured to the Worcester hospital. Mrs. Rouseau, Quarn, Winchester and Brown refused medical assistance and left for their homes. Miss Margaret Ryan was taken to the hospital, where little hope was held out for her recovery.

KILLED IN THE YOSEMITE.

Stage Coach Runaway—Driver Ran Team Into Cliff.

Yosemite, Cal., June 5.—R. S. Leisenring of Allentown, Pa., was killed and 10 other persons were injured, three of them seriously, in a stage coach runaway in the Yosemite valley Saturday evening. The dead and injured were all tourists.

On a steep hill the horses became unmanageable and the brakes failed to hold. They bolted down the side between a high bank on one side and a sharp precipice on the other. The driver, seeing it was impossible to stop the team turned them straight into the wall of the cliff. Leisenring was thrown clear, but struck on his head, fracturing his skull.

Allentown, P. A., June 5.—Dentist S. Leisenring was a member of the real estate firm of Leisenring & Walker and one of the leading business men of the city. He was 70 years old.

SEVERAL SUNDAY DROWNINGS.

In and Around New York and from Various Causes.

New York, June 5.—Sixty-year-old Ludwig Pecha's effort to catch a ball thrown over his head cost him his life yesterday. He fell from the dock on which he was playing into the East river. It was only one of the several river tragedies yesterday. The body of a naked 18-year-old lad, who evidently had lost his life while swimming, was picked up in the East river and the body of a man about 40 years old was found near the same spot. Neither was identified.

John Eliar, 16 years of age, was seized with cramps while swimming in Flushing bay and drowned before his companions could reach him. John J. Green, 18 years of age, fell from a Coney island pier and was drowned.

REACHED ROME TO-DAY.

Vidert Was Fourth Contestant in the Air Race.

Rome, June 5.—Vidert, the fourth contestant to reach Rome, the end of the second stage of the 1,300-mile Paris-Rome-Turin air race, arrived here this morning. The aviator reached "Pellegrino" about 70 miles from the Italian capital Saturday, but on account of accidents to his aeroplane was unable to continue the flight until to-day. Leprieux, the French aviator, arrived at Genoa this morning. The airman postponed his departure for Rome, pending instructions from the aviation committee.

AT LYNDONVILLE.

Washington, D. C., June 5.—Following are among the postoffices designated yesterday as postal savings depositories: Lyndonville, Vt.; New Canaan, Conn.; Clinton, Ipswich and Southbridge, Mass.; Keene, N. H., and Calais, Me.

DEATH COMES DURING STORM

Which Swept State of Michigan Last Night

TWO SEIZED LIVE WIRES

Another Was Struck by Lightning and Was Killed—So Many Wires Are Down That Reports Are Not Complete.

Detroit, Mich., June 5.—At least three lives were lost as the result of an electrical storm that swept Michigan last night. Wires are down in so many directions that reports of the damage are not complete. Two of the persons known to be dead were killed by seizing a dangling electric wire in a street suburb to-day, and the third was killed by lightning near Flint last night.

At Lennon, Shiawassee county, 14 moving freight cars were swept off the track. No one was injured. Wooster, Ohio, June 5.—A wind and rain storm struck Wooster last yesterday, doing enormous damage and injuring several persons, one probably fatally. Louis Brown was carried in the ruins of a small outbuilding for some distance and may die from injuries. The spires of the First Presbyterian church and the main building of the county infirmary were blown off. All wires suffered, and it is reported that there is a big loss to crops in the rural districts.

LAST GRADUATING EXERCISES

Of Randolph Normal School, Which Will Be Succeeded by Agricultural School.

The Randolph State Normal school, which is to be discontinued at the close of the year and succeeded by an agricultural school, will hold its forty-fifth and last annual graduating exercises June 11 to June 15. The call issued by the committee of the Alumni association for a general reunion is meeting with enthusiastic responses, which indicate a large attendance. The program for the week is as follows:

Sunday, June 11, at 2:30 p. m., sermon by Rev. Fraser Metzger. Monday, June 12, at 8 p. m., drama, "A Virginia Heroine," by students. Tuesday, June 13, at 10 a. m., examination of candidates for diplomas; at 8 p. m., senior reception. Wednesday, June 14, at 2 p. m., class day exercises; at 8 p. m., grand concert, Schubert quartet. Thursday, June 15, at 10 a. m., class reunions; at 2 p. m., alumni meeting; at 7 p. m., graduation exercises, address by Professor Walter E. Howard; at 9 p. m., alumni banquet.

FOR FIVE MONTHS
MUST STAY IN JAIL

Daniel O'Reilly Convicted of Receiving Stolen Goods in Bancroft Bond Robbery Case.

New York, June 5.—Daniel O'Reilly, the lawyer who was convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Bancroft bond robbery case, was to-day sentenced by Justice Davis in the criminal branch of the supreme court to five months in the penitentiary. Abraham Levy made a plea in his behalf, but District Attorney Whitman made a demand for a jail sentence.

BUYS BERLIN POND PROPERTY.

Deeds of Solinas Farm Accepted by Montpelier City Council, Cost $7,500.

A special meeting of the Montpelier city council was held Saturday afternoon, the principal business transacted being the acceptance of the deeds of the Solinas farm and the cottages thereon at Berlin pond. The price paid for the property was $7,500. The mayor was authorized to draw a warrant for $5,000 on the water fund, but some of the $7,500 will have to come from the general fund and later be reimbursed from the water fund.

Sergeant-at-arms C. H. Ferrin has asked the mayor for better fire protection at the State House and the fire committee agrees that such protection is needed. It was suggested that more hydrants be added and if the city will lay the pipe the state will do the rest. The water committee was given power to act in regard to the matter.

PROMINENT RESIDENT.

George Hammond, Aged 75, Died in Middlebury To-day.

Middlebury, June 5.—George Hammond, aged 75, one of the leading citizens of Addison county, died to-day at his home after several days' illness with heart trouble. He was well known as a cattle and sheep buyer. He had held all the town offices here and had been town representative and county senator. Mr. Hammond was born in Middlebury and had lived all his life here. He leaves his wife and a son, George C. Hammond, of South Dakota.

ONE AUTO LAMP SMASHED

When J. K. Pirie's auto Collided With and Bruised Bicyclist.

An automobile owned and driven by J. K. Pirie, collided with a bicycle on South Main street Saturday afternoon. J. Bargini was the rider of the "bike," and in dodging several teams he ran directly in front of the auto. He was thrown to the ground and was somewhat bruised, but not seriously hurt. One of the lamps on the auto was smashed.

GODDARD CHAMPION OF VERMONT SCHOOLS

Barre School Took 36 Points, Of Which Sherburne Brought In 25 and Was Star of the Meet.

With a total score of 36 points, Goddard seminary won the sixth annual intercollegiate track meet held by the university of Vermont at Burlington Saturday. This is the second time that Goddard won the meet; her first was the first meet that was held in 1906, and since then Vermont academy has won each until this year. This meet was the largest ever held both in number of schools represented and entries. The schools numbered 12 and the entries 108. Several records were lowered and the meet throughout was of a high standard.

Sherburne of Goddard was the high scorer of the meet with a total of 25 points, winning five events, 100 yd. dash, 440 yd. run, half mile, discus and hammer throw. Brattleboro was next to Goddard with a score of 20 points. The following is a list of the schools and points scored: Goddard 36; Brattleboro 20; Vermont academy 20; Troy conference academy 18; Burlington 6; Bellows Falls 5; Newport 2; Montpelier 1; Brigham academy, St. Johnsbury academy, Hardwick, and North Troy high schools did not score.

The five best individual scores were made by Sherburne of G. S., 25 points; Nichols, V. A., 13 points; Thompson, Brattleboro, 12 points; Miner, Brattleboro, 11 points; Winans, T. C. A., 10 points. Victorious Goddard team carried off nine prizes, the large silver cup for the meet; five firsts won by Sherburne; first in high jump by Fiske; second in hammer throw and third in both broad jump and discus throw won by Titus. Of the rest of the Goddard team who did not score in the finals, Pam and Louis both qualified in the 220 yd. run, Louis finishing fourth. Pam finished fourth in the 440 yd. run and Horsford fourth in the half mile run. McLeay and Horsford both were well up in the mile run.

The Goddard team made a remarkably large score for only seven men entered. The members of the team put in hard and diligent work in preparation for the meet under the direction of Coach Stacy of the seminary, and the result of the meet reflects great credit on both the coach and the members of the team.

In trials held in the morning, Freedman of M. S., Nichols of V. A., and Sherburne of G. S., qualified in the 100 yd. dash; Nichols of C. A., Thompson and Haskell of Brattleboro, Nichols of V. A. and Haskell of Brattleboro qualified in the 120 yd. hurdles; Riley of Bellows Falls, Louis of Goddard, Winans of T. C. A., Ham of Goddard, Nichols of V. A. and Williams of Montpelier seminary qualified in the 220 yd. run.

The finals resulted as follows: 100 yd. dash, Sherburne, G. S., first; Nichols, V. A., second; Freedman, M. S., third. Time, 16 and 4-5 seconds. 120 yd. hurdles, Thompson, Brattleboro, first; Mallory, T. C. A., second; Haskell, Brattleboro, third. Time 18 seconds.

440 yd. dash, Sherburne, G. S., first; Miner, Brattleboro, second; Kipp, Newport, third. Time, 2 min. 17 3-5 seconds. 220 yd. dash, Nichols, V. A., first; Winans, T. C. A., second; Riley, Bellows Falls, third. Time, 23 1-2 seconds. 440 yd. dash, Thompson, Brattleboro, first; Mallory, T. C. A., second; Haskell, Brattleboro, third. Time 18 seconds.

Half mile run, Sherburne, G. S., first; Miner, Brattleboro, second; Kipp, Newport, third. Time, 2 min. 17 3-5 seconds. 220 yd. dash, Nichols, V. A., first; Winans, T. C. A., second; Riley, Bellows Falls, third. Time, 23 1-2 seconds. Shot put, Young, T. C. A., first; Mederos, V. A., second; Putnam, Bellows Falls, third. Distance, 40 ft. 1 1/2 in. Hammer throw, Sherburne, G. S., first; Titus, G. S., second; Mederos, V. A., third. Distance 139 ft. 9 in., lowering the old record of 39 ft. 9 in.

Pole vault, Bailey, Burlington, first; Haskell, Brattleboro, second; Over, Brattleboro, third. Height, 8 ft. 10 in. High jump, Fiske, G. S., first; Thompson, Brattleboro, and Winans, T. C. A., tied for second; height 5 ft. 5 in., raising the old record of 5 ft. 3 in.

Broad jump, Winans, T. C. A., first; Thompson, Brattleboro, and Titus, G. S., tied for second. Distance, 19 ft. 5 1/2 in. Discus throw, Sherburne, G. S., first; Tribolet, V. A., second; Titus, G. S., third. Distance, 109 ft. 4 1/2 in. The officials of the meet were, referee, McDonald, U. V. M.; starter, Black-burn, M. I. T.; timers, Whelan, Aiken and Harmon of U. V. M.; judges, Prof. Stetson, Donahue, Soule and Erwin of U. V. M.; clerk of course, Guttererson of U. V. M.; manager, Brewer of U. V. M.

COMMENCEMENT IN WATERBURY.

Baccalaureate Sermon Began Program—All Teachers but One to Return.

Waterbury, June 5.—The Methodist church was crowded yesterday when both congregations assembled for the Waterbury high school baccalaureate sermon. The chorus choir, under the direction of E. T. Houston, furnished most excellent music, with Mrs. D. W. Cooley at the organ. The church was prettily decorated with flowers and the class banner in front of the pulpit. Rev. E. F. Sewell conducted the exercises and Rev. W. L. Boicourt preached a very plain, helpful sermon, outlining the difference between service and opportunity and the influence of each upon character.

Commencement exercises will occur this week as follows: Thursday afternoon, class day exercises in the high school room; Thursday evening, exercises of the grammar school in the Methodist church; Friday evening the graduating exercises of the class of 1911 at the Methodist church; Saturday evening, alumni reception and ball at the K. of P. hall.

All the teachers in the graded schools are to return next year, except Miss Healey, who goes back to her work in Barre schools. She has given excellent satisfaction here and her resignation was regretfully accepted.

Ross' barber shop stands for prompt service and satisfied customers.

TEACHERS OUT IN DISGUST

Because of Alleged Inadequate Salaries

BY SWANTON SCHOOL BOARD

Six of Them, Which Is Total in Swanton Graded School, Have Tendered Their Resignations—Teachers of Considerable Experience.

Swanton, June 5.—All the grade teachers, six in number, of the Swanton high and graded school, have tendered their resignations to the Swanton school superintendent, Mrs. Harriet M. Ide, on account of the claim of the inadequacy of their salaries and the refusal of the school board to grant even the small raise which they asked for. The teachers are Misses Celia Corbett, Pearl Butterfield, Elizabeth Neidel, Grace Fitzsimonds, Blanche Blake and Hazel Stone. All of them are teachers of experience, three of them having taught more than ten years, one of them over six years and the other two for shorter periods.

TOOK PARIS GREEN AND PASSED AWAY

Edward Danis of Burlington Had Been Mentally Deranged for Several Months. He Was 57 Years Old.

Burlington, June 5.—Edward Danis of 182 North Willard street died yesterday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock from the effects of taking paris green. Danis for several months had been mentally deranged and, although under surveillance, had been allowed freedom to go about the city. Until last Thursday, when he took the poison in the afternoon, he had given no indications of such an action.

He was 57 years of age. He is survived by a wife and nine children. Arthur and Alphonse of Boston, Emilia of New York City, Florence of Great Falls, Kent, and Joseph, Margaret, Helen, Bertha and Mary of this city, and by three sisters, of whom: Mrs. Joseph Herbert and Miss Elizabeth Danis live in the city. The funeral will be held from St. Joseph's church at eight o'clock Tuesday morning.

CAUGHT THE BRAKEBEAM.

And Held on, Thus Saving Himself From Being Run Over.

A man employed by the city at the stone crusher had a narrow escape from being run over by a car on a siding at Marr & Gordon's shed this forenoon. The man went to step across the tracks and evidently did not see the car, which was being pushed along the tracks by workmen from the stone shed. The car struck the man in the side and knocked him over onto the tracks, but the car was moving so slowly that he had time to catch hold of the brake beam and keep his body away from the wheels until his cries attracted the men and the car was stopped.

FELL WHILE PILING WOOD.

George Rice Considerably Injured and Some Bones Broken.

West Topsham, June 5.—As George Rice, a Civil war veteran, 82 years old, was piling wood last Friday, he fell backward from a block on which he was standing, dislocating and breaking some bones of the right shoulder and otherwise injuring himself to such an extent that Dr. Dow, who was immediately called, deemed it advisable to have him taken to the hospital at Montpelier, which was done. L. P. Hight carrying him in his auto, accompanied by Dr. Dow. The X-ray photography was used to locate the extent of the injury. Mr. Rice stood the journey well and at last accounts was comfortable.

BURNS CLUB PICNIC.

Large Attendance at Caledonia Park Had Best Time Ever.

The Burns club held its annual picnic at Caledonia park Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal for an outing and there was a large turnout of members, with their families and friends. The committee in charge was energetic and untiring in its efforts to attend to the well-being of the gathering and the affair proved to be one of the most successful the club had ever held. Music for dancing was furnished by Coburn's orchestra, and at frequent intervals during the afternoon and evening, those who felt so inclined enjoyed this popular form of amusement.

A game of baseball was played between two teams, captained by Jack Chessner and Fred Bird. At the end of the game, or at least as much of it as was played, the score stood 10 to 3 in favor of Chessner's team.

In the fat men's race, Bob Inglis came in first, closely followed by three other heavyweights, who tied for second honors. After a breathing space, these sprinters tried their speed again, with the result that Jim Lamont came in the victor.

When daylight began to disappear and the sports and dancing were over, the genial president of the club, C. W. McMillan, called the assembly together to sing "Auld Lang Syne" and thus came to a fitting close a most delightful day's outing.

The following is the prize list, the names being given in the order of their rank:

Ladies' race, Isabella Scott, Mrs. Will, Mrs. Hogg, Mrs. Sora.

Ladies' place kick, Mrs. Will, Isabella Scott, Mrs. Hogg.
